

Concluding Observations: Afghanistan, 2011

The Committee is particularly concerned that, in the prevailing conditions of conflict, schools have been used as polling stations during elections and occupied by international and national military forces.

The Committee recommends that the State party ... (i) Use all means to protect schools, teachers and children from attacks, and include communities, in particular parents and children, in the development of measures to better protect schools against attacks and violence...

*Consideration of reports submitted by States parties under article 44 of the Convention
Concluding observations: Afghanistan, CRC/C/AFG/CO/1 (2011), paras. 61-62.*
